The wealthler counties might profit by such an arrangement through direct taxation, but the puorer counties, he maintained, would be left out in the cold. "The result would be," he declared, "that in my county of Pittsburg we would have hard surfaced roads while in McIntosh and Hughes and Atoka and McCurtain countles adjoining us our good roads would count for nothing because there would be no good roads would count for nothing because there would be no good roads to connect up with them."

A motion to indorse the bond proposition was made immediately after Nesbitt concluded his speech. Of the 160 or more members of the club present, every man voted in favor except "Bill" Long, a camidiate for member of the city school hoard. He came out with a loud "no" and after luncheon he attempted to show the author of the good roads resolution "the error of his ways." but menforeship drive, said that the past Twelve hundred members is the ciul's goal.
